Race Bating In America

Today I want us to look at race bating in America. In light of what happened in Dallas, TX, I believe this is a subject we should take a serious look at. There were 5 police officers killed, and the reason was racism. We have leaders in America who are encouraging this type of thing. We have a President who, instead of helping the issue, is part of the problem. Because he is the first black President, we thought that he would fix the racial problems in America, but he has only made them worse.

The shooting in Dallas was the result of the shooting of what were thought to be unarmed black men by the police. Police have to make split second decisions, their lives depend on it. When you have a person who is resisting arrest and not cooperating with a police officer, the officer's life is often in danger. I have seen videos where the policemen have been shot by someone they are trying to arrest. They have to be quick in deciding how to respond to someone who is resisting arrest.

If a policeman makes the wrong decision he will not go home to his wife and children. Sometimes they get it wrong and someone dies who should not have. When they do, they end up in jail. The mistakes are seldom made because of race, they are made because the officer fears for his life.

There were protests in multiple cities, and the Dallas police department had decided not to wear their riot gear because they wanted to send a positive message to the protesters. Remember, this was a protest against the police and the police were protecting the protesters.

One thing that really frustrates me is that Obama said we don't know the motivation for this shooting. How could he say this when the shooter himself told the police that he hated white people and that he wanted to kill white people, especially white policemen. Put this in the context that every time a police officer shoots a black man, Obama says that it is racially motivated before he knows the facts.

When a police officer stops someone for a traffic ticket, the one he stops knows whether or not he has a gun. The police officer does not, and he must be prepared for any possibility.

My sense is that the shooting in Minneapolis will not be a justified shooting. I think the police officer will probably be prosecuted for that shooting.

On the other hand I think the shooting in Baton Rouge is justified. The police were called because a man said that the man the police shot was threatening him with a gun. This means that the police knew there was a gun involved. The man refused to cooperate with the police and resisted arrest. After he was shot we see the police remove a pistol from his right front pocket. We also need to know that this man had a lengthy rap sheet, including previous encounters with the police.

Knowing that a gun was involved, and knowing that the man had a rap sheet, was certainly on the minds of the police. I get a little tired of, every time a black person is killed, people saying the it was a poor innocent person. They never report the rap sheet, the criminal history, etc.

When the police have contact with people it is very dangerous. There is no doubt that there are abuses, but they are few.

Maybe it is time to cover some facts. We need to remember that people like Al Sharpton and Jesse Jackson are paid race batters. This is how they make their living. Obama has done nothing but exasperate the situation by focusing on race in every situation before the facts come out. He even talked about racism on the part of the police at the memorial service for the 5 police officers who were killed.

We want to look at Louis Farrakhan who is one of the chief race batters. The media also is complicit by the way they report things. Just look at the shooting in Ferguson, MO. That was a real mess. Sharpton and Jackson were there to fan the flames of racism. Farrakhan also stuck his nose into it to try and make it all about race.

Louis Farrakhan's movement is about race. It is a movement that hates white people. It is what we call Black Liberation Theology. There are two people in Chicago preaching hatred toward the white man. President Obama sat under the preaching of one of them for 20 years.

James Conney started the doctrine of Black Liberation Theology. The big time preacher of this theology, Jeremiah Wright, was Obama's pastor.

Black Liberation Theology

What is Black Liberation Theology? It teaches that the black man has been oppressed by the white man, and one day, with God's help, we will overcome our oppressors. God will give victory over the white man, and he will become servant to the black man. Just like Jesus was oppressed and lynched on a tree, the black man has been lynched on a tree.

This is why, when we were attacked by Islamic terrorists, Jeremiah Wright is known for saying “The chickens have come home to roost.” He was saying that God is beginning to judge white America, and using Islam to do so.

Across town, one of Wright's buddies, Louis Farrakhan, a Muslim was preaching the very same thing. Last month Farrakhan preached in a Baptist church, and we will link to the message. Can you imagine that, a Muslim preaching in a Baptist church? Does this sound normal to you? Farrakhan is a welcome preacher in many of the black churches of America.

The organizer of the Dallas rally, Jeff Hood, is a homosexual and has allegiance to Islam but claims to be a Baptist minister. He has espoused the Muslim perspective on Jesus. He is quoted as saying:

“I think the Texas Muslims are the real Christians.”

He wrote a book, “The Courage To Be Queer,” in which he blasphemously wrote:

“In fully living into the Queer within, Jesus became different and made all the difference.”

He also stated:

“Jesus was the most queer person on Earth.”

It is amazing that these black churches are allowing this Islamic element to come in.

The shooter in Dallas, Micah Johnson's middle name is Xavier. This name is very common with those who are fans of Malcolm X. There are pictures of him on line holding up the black power salute. He was a fan of the Black Panthers founder, and he was a fan of Elijah Muhammad, the founder of the Nation of Islam.

We continue to see the connection between race bating and Muslim bating. It seems that Obama is a black socialist/communist Muslim. It all seems to fit together.

The Attack On The Police

Think about this, the police in Dallas were sniped from buildings. How can they protect themselves from this?

After the Ferguson incident there was much talk about the police being to militarized. We were told that it was too threatening, and that it made things worse. The police in Dallas wanted to be less provocative so they didn't wear the protection gear, and look at what happened. They became easy targets for the shooter.

My advice to the police is to put on their riot gear when facing this type of situation. Bring out all the equipment you need to protect yourselves and others. These are anarchist. They are trying to destroy law and order, and they are attacking those who want to keep it.

Johnson was trained in the military, and from the video we know that he knew what he was doing. Our police forces need to be prepared to deal with this kind of attack. There were others arrested in Dallas, but now we hear nothing about them. We are told that he was acting alone, but there were reports of crossfire and multiple shots coming from different directions.

I believe that when all the facts come out we will see a connection between the Black Lives Matter movement and Islamic fundamentalism. We clearly see a connection to the Nation of Islam in this matter.

We get accused of being haters and of inciting violence. We have never once incited violence. We have always said to pray for our enemies as the Bible says. We have always said to love them and to try to reach them for Christ. We do speak out against Islam and race bating, but we always say to speak the truth in love.

Let's take a closer look at Louis Farrakhan, and the hatred that he spews. Here is part of the transcript of a message he preached about a year ago:

“I’m looking for 10,000 in the midst of a million. Ten thousand fearless men who say death is sweeter than continued life under tyranny. Death is sweeter than continuing to live and bury our children while the white folks give our killers hamburgers. Death is sweeter than watching us slaughter each other to the joy of a 400-year-old enemy. Death is sweeter. The Qur'an teaches persecution is worse than slaughter. Then it says retaliation is prescribed in matters of the slain. Retaliation is a prescription from God to calm the breasts of those whose children have been slain. So if the federal government won't intercede in our affairs, then we must rise up and kill those who kill us; stalk them and kill them and let them feel the pain of death that we are feeling!”

You can listen to Farrakhan's call to kill the police at Breitbart website. You really need to listen to this.

After listening to this, tell us if you think this should be a crime. He had just said, go and kill police, and the people were rising up clapping and shouting in approval.

I am sure that if we had said this same thing in public we would have been visited by the FBI and we would be under investigation by the Department of Justice. If we started an organization called White Lives Matter. We would be declared racists.

We have connected the shooter in Dallas to the Black Panthers. Here is some more light on this subject. Babu Omowale, the national minister of defense for the People's New Black Panther Party said:

[H]is group and others are working to establish a government in a nation within a nation. The five states that would make up the new nation would be Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina.

He is calling for blacks to mass migrate to five southern states.

“We just need to start migrating back to those states and taking control of the economics in those states. If black people move in, most definitely white people will move out. So it's not a hard process for us to have our own country within a country”

The goal is to force all the whites out of the states he mentioned and form a black state. This is a lot like the Islamic doctrine of migration where they migrate to a country they want of take over and grow their numbers to a point where they can elect Muslims to the government. Don't you think it is interesting that they have the same agenda?

Facts are inconvenient for those who don't deal in facts. To use Al Gore's expression, it is an inconvenient truth to see Black Lives Matter tied to these things.

I want to cover three things here.

1. Based upon 2015 statistics, fatal police shootings make up a much larger percentage of whites and Hispanics than they do of blacks. In 2015 police officers killed 662 whites and Hispanics and 258 blacks. They killed almost 3 times as many whites and Hispanics. Where is the Hispanic lives matter? Where is the white lives matter?
2. Of whites and Hispanics killed in America, 12% were killed by the police. Of all the blacks killed in America, only 4% were killed by the police.
3. Police officers are disproportionately endangered by black assailants. Over the past 10 years, 40% of cop killers have been black. Officers are killed by blacks at a rate 2 ½ times greater than the rate that police kill blacks. While we recognize that there are bad shootings by the police, the truth is that they happen across the board. It is not just against blacks. The black community should be addressing the problem of black on black murder. The fact that this is not addressed by Black Lives Matter shows their true intent.

If we look at the shooting of Michale Brown in Ferguson, we see how distorted things are. They want us to believe that Brown was in the surrender position when he was shot. When the truth came out, he was charging the police officer when he was shot.

In a confrontation with police there is always a gun. If the other party doesn't have a gun, the police officer does. Other than at traffic stops, the number one way that police officers are killed is by their own gun. We need to understand that when people go for a police officer's gun, it is a matter of life and death for the officer.

Motivation?

What is the motivation for what is going on? What is the motivation behind Black Lives Matter? The motivation is the overthrow of our culture, it is to destroy our nation. We have to be wise enough to see that they are using race as a vehicle. This is not to say that there are not racist people, but it is the Louis Farrakhan's that are the racists. It is Obama who is the racist. They are the ones promoting racial unrest and using race as a dividing factor.

We don't care about the color of a person's skin, we care about what is in a person's heart. The Bible says that God created all men in His image. It amazes me to see black pastors promoting racism. Anyone who is a follower of the Word of God should not be promoting racism.

If you want to highlight what is going on in the black community, highlight crime. Let's do something about the black on black crime. Breitbart has an article on 5 devastating facts about black on black crime.

FACT 1. Over 1,400 more black Americans murdered other blacks in two years than were lynched from 1882 to 1968.

FACT 2. Black People (mostly men) commit a grossly disproportionate amount of crime.

FACT 3. Despite making up just 13% of the population, blacks committed half of homicides in the United States for nearly 30 years.

FACT 4. Chicago's death toll is almost equal to that of both wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, combined.

FACT 5. It would take cops 40 years to kill as many black men as have died at the hands of others black men in 2012 alone.

We need to know these facts. We can't let the lies promoted by the racists fool us.

What Does The Bible Say About Race?

If we had a Christian world-view race would be a non-issue.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. (Galatians 3:28)

We are all one in Christ Jesus. We are all God's creatures.

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. (Genesis 1:26-27)

There are those who try to twist Scripture to make it teach what it does not. Some take the passage in Genesis 6 where Cain was marked and make it say that he was marked as a black man. They use this to put a curse upon black people. Others say that Ham, after the flood, was cursed and that is where the black man comes from. There is absolutely no biblical evidence for this interpretation. It is man perverting Scripture to support hate of one group toward another.

There is no doubt that there have been divisions over race. It is not just between blacks and whites. The Jews are a hated race, especially by Muslims. This kind of division is not a biblical perspective. It comes from the evil hearts of men.

The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? (Jeremiah 17:9)

When we look into the DNA we learn that all of us have the code to be black. There are 4 elements with in the DNA that determine our skin color. All of them are in all of us, they are just arranged differently.

Culture, how a person is taught to think and react, is what is important. If you take the Bible and God's principles out of the mix you are in trouble.

Listen to what John Adams had to say in a message to the Officers of the First Brigade of the Third Division of the Militia of Massachusetts:

“...because we have no government armed with power capable of contending with human passions unbridled by morality and religion...Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.”

Laws cannot be made to control mens passions. There must be some kind of internal moral and religious control. No government or constitution can keep men in line.

America has fallen into corruption, lawlessness, and debauchery. We have people running for office that should be in prison. We have riots in the streets and people calling for the murdering of police.

We need to recognize that apart from God's Word governing us, we can all become bigots, racists, haters, etc.

I find it deeply offensive when I here people say, “I'm African American, I'm this American, I'm that American.” Why can't we just all be Americans? We are all God's creation, and are all of equal value.

We shouldn't look at a person's skin color, we should look at his character. We should look at how one lives his life, and whether or not he is following God's precepts. These are the things that matter.

Hate crime laws are foolish because no amount of laws can stop people from hating each other. We need the healing of God which only comes through repentance toward God, and through His indwelling Spirit.

When you have those like President Obama who promote a racist narrative, you get what we have today. The promotion of the racist narrative is evil. We published an article on The Biblical View of Race back in 2014.

Gun Control

I hope you don't get caught up in this gun control push. Guns are not the problem, people are. Look at this interesting chart:

This is quite interesting, isn't it? I wonder what we would find on the Dallas shooter.

Slavery

There is no doubt that America has a history of slavery, but people have their history wrong. It was not the Republican Party that was the party of slaves, it was the Democrat Party. We are not advocating for any particular party, but the facts are the facts. The Republican Party was formed to eliminate slavery. The Republican Party brought us the civil rights laws and the Democrat Party fought it all the way.

Some black leaders are starting to compare the inner cities with slavery. It is the welfare mentality that is enslaving many black people. It is the Democrats saying vote for us and we will give you all these "free things." The cities with the biggest problems are all run by Democrats. It is time to wake up and see the truth.
